The popular will was mighty and Reid did prevail.

There is no longer to be a drug in the market.

There is nothing in the way of an immediate adjournment of the special session. Give Thanksgiving a chance.

The nomination of Maynard is not so entrenched behind its cause. It is so easily susceptible to direct attack.

Boody's efforts to prove that the election ring is in the hands of the party are hampered by the steady interference of fact.

Very good citizens trust that the Supreme Court will decide in favor of the franchise amendment.

ing. Voting as they did when the question came to final issue, the three Commissioners who were against the river-side path certainly showed themselves insensible to the expressed wishes of the people.

THE COWARDLY MAKEUP DEAD.
The most mischievous clause of the Sherman act of 1890 is now blotted from the statute book. It is dead and buried at last. The repeal bill was passed by the House over the heads of the tariff lobbyists yesterday afternoon by a vote of 193 yeas to 94 nays, or more than two to one. Before 4:30 o'clock the President had affixed his signature and the bill was a law.

President Cleveland has won credit for the steady determination with which he adhered to the policy of unconditional repeal and refused to give countenance to any cowardly compromise. The Democratic party has won credit for carrying out in good faith that promise of its platform which through circumstances has become the most pressing and the most important of the extra session was called. Congress has won credit for giving the financial and business interests of the country at last the aid they have been seeking.

DON'T TRY IT.
The success of all the candidates on the Democratic State ticket, with the exception of Judge Maynard, is assured. They are all good men, capable, faithful and honest, and deserve, as they will receive, the full support of their party. The election of Judge Maynard is in doubt because a very large number of Democrats refuse to support him, for the reasons that his nomination was in opposition to the wishes of the majority of the Democratic State, that it is not fitted for the Court of Appeals bench, and that his election would be a reproach and an injury to Democracy.

We regret to hear of attempts to terrorize Democrats who propose to vote against Judge Maynard, by threatening them with the penalties of treason and by other bullying methods. The right to vote without pressure or intimidation is a sacred right inherent in every American citizen properly qualified, and he is secured and protected by the law. Whoever interferes with the right to vote by any means to keep a legal voter away from the polls or to unduly influence his vote, either by threats or by bribes, commits an offense against the law and renders himself liable to its penalties.

American citizens resent dictation, and will not tolerate any unwarrantable interference with them in the free exercise of their rights. We offer those politicians who are seeking to intimidate and coerce Democrats into the support of Judge Maynard this advice—Don't try it. It will only intensify the Democratic indignation against the nomination and increase the probability of the candidate's defeat.

GOOD LAW, BUT BAD MANNERS.
Judge Bartlett, of the Supreme Court, yesterday decided that women cannot vote for School Commissioners in the coming election in this State for the reason that the law conferring the franchise upon them is unconstitutional and invalid.

In the Fifth Judicial District a similar decision has been rendered, the ground in both cases being that School Commissioners are within the class of officers and employees of the State, and can be elected only by voters qualified under article 2, section 1, of the Constitution. There are "male citizens," duly qualified, and there must be an amendment of this clause of the Constitution before women can vote.

Of course, the fair status, excluded from the ballot-box, will try, try again. Persistence is one of the characteristics of the sex.

MURDERED AND BEHEADED.
M. Velimirovitch, Serbian Ex-Minister of Justice, slain.
Fleets to Visit Barcelona—General News by Cable.
BELGRADE, Nov. 2.—M. Velimirovitch, formerly Serbian Minister of Justice, was found dead yesterday in his bedroom in his residence here.

His head had been severed from his body, which was mutilated in a horrible manner. A large sum of money and a quantity of valuables were stolen. There is no clue to the author or authors of the crime. It is believed, however, that robbery was not the principal motive, and that the crime was due to political animosity.

FIGHTERS REST AT MELILLA.
No Actual Fighting Since Monday—The Spanish Loss.
MADRID, Nov. 2.—There has been no actual fighting at Melilla since Monday. The cruiser Alfonso, while cruising along Cape Gata, upon and shell the Moorish dwellings.

The loss to the Spaniards in the recent engagement was four officers and eighteen men killed and fifteen officers and seventy men wounded.

The Spaniards detected eleven Rifian spies in the vicinity of the Spanish camp of soldiers volunteered to attempt to capture them, and when they made a sortie the spies took to their heels. Three of the spies stumbled and were made prisoners.

Gen. Macias, in command of the Spanish forces, has dismissed the Moorish officers in the Custom House at Melilla, and the latter have taken refuge in Tangier.

ROOSEVELT'S APPOINTMENT.
Reward for Campaign Contributions, Think the London Chronicle.
LONDON, Nov. 2.—The Chronicle this morning says: "In our New York telegram of yesterday, dealing with the appointment of Mr. Roosevelt to the United States Embassy in London, the main contention was whether an American politician supplanting merit as a necessary qualification for diplomatic office—that is, money to keep the party machine well oiled."

"In denying now that the relations between the American ambassador and his former secretary were strained, the trouble is taken to contradict something that we never alleged. Moreover, as this latter statement disposes of any possible ground for Mr. White's dismissal, that dismissal, in the absence of any friction between Mr. White and his chief, comes all the more inexplicable save on the ground advanced by our correspondent, that Mr. Roosevelt's campaign contributions had secured substantial recognition from the President."

"Mr. Roosevelt is undoubtedly a rich and therefore a prominent man in New York City. His family, we understand, belongs to the 400 of the upper class of society."

HELP THE SEA ISLANDERS NOW
"The World's" Relief Train Starts on Saturday.
The Charitable Should Send Contributions To-Day or To-Morrow.
Only one more day remains for sending in contributions to "The World's" relief train for the Southern sufferers, and those who wish to aid in this practical charity, which will bring comfort and happiness to thousands of poor Sea Islanders, should not lose this last opportunity of showing their sympathy for the distressed people.

As the train will start from this city on Saturday afternoon, everything that is sent in before to-morrow night. Start your contributions to-day or early to-morrow, for if they are delayed until evening they will not be received in time to be put upon the train.

KING LOBENGULA TRAPPED.
Capture of Himself and His Followers Seems Probable.
LONDON, Nov. 2.—A despatch from Cape Town says that King Lobengula, who is reaching Fort Victoria, confirms the belief that King Lobengula has been trapped.

He is blocked to the northward by the tactics of the British, through which it will be impossible for him to drive his army southward. He is surrounded by British troops and the forces of the British South Africa Company.

Lobengula's forces are supposed to be in the vicinity of the Shangani and Zambesi rivers, one hundred and forty miles west of Fort Victoria. Their capture seems probable.

TO CAUSE SOLDIERS TO STRIKE.
Plans of Revolutionary Socialists Discussed at Brussels.
BRUSSELS, Nov. 2.—At a congress of revolutionary Socialists held here last night it was resolved to carry on an active campaign to induce soldiers to strike among the soldiers of Belgium and elsewhere.

WRAPPED IN A HEAVY FOG.
Bay Blanketed from 8 O'Clock Until Nearly Noon.
Ellis Island Ferryboat Forced to Tie Up.
A dense fog closed in on the harbor this morning, causing a delay and annoyance to all kinds of water traffic.

A sheet of thin vapor floated over the upper and lower bays at an early hour, and did not interfere with navigation. At 8 o'clock a southwest breeze carried in heavy banks of fog and spread them over the harbor.

At 9 o'clock the force of immigration officers and employees were gathered together about the large office, watching for a glimpse of their ferryboat.

LETTERS.
[This column is for the benefit of everybody who has a complaint to make, a grievance to vent, a question to ask, or a public service to acknowledge, and who can put the idea into less than 100 words. Long letters cannot be printed.]

The Wheel Has Another Whirl.
To the Editor:
I have read with much interest the several exhaustive demonstrations, which have appeared from time to time in your "Editorial" column, going to show an excellent case for the abolition of a wheel move more rapidly than the lower half, and I would like to submit a plan for a thoroughly practical illustration of this principle.

Who Can Answer?
To the Editor:
Why is it that dudes wear black collars? They look like cuffs. Is it the style or not?
JOHN JOHNSON.

On $5 a Week.
To the Editor:
I beg to be permitted to differ with that simpleton who can live on $5 a week, and thinks there are only six days in the week that require five. I suppose he goes to church to keep warm, and lives on the outside like the poor woman, so that he can't buy for the babies; no bedding or household goods; no wood to build the fire, or soap if he needs any, nor shoes for his family. It would be good enough for him, but I pity his poor family. Permit me to state I am another lady who has to support a family of four on $5 a week and I know it cannot be done.

Sidewalk Obstructions in Twenty-second Street.
To the Editor:
Although school-keepers have no right to dump their empty boxes upon the sidewalk, it seems nevertheless, to be a general practice among these worthies. At the northeast corner of Eighth avenue and West Twenty-second street an array of empty boxes, with Italian fruit and vegetable stands, have been dumped in obstruction to passage. These dead obstructions are not removed by living ones, consisting of hawkers and vagabonds, who find their best profit in turning places, from which they do not intend to cover a large area of the sidewalk, with barefooted children, running women's dresses. Under the existing conditions of the city government it is not to be wondered at that the policeman on the beat should be a poor fellow, who is referred to, but should not in any case be kept clear from expectorating hawkers and beer swills.

Does Anybody Know?
To the Editor:
I possess a bill bearing date April 19, 1900, and reading: "This bill by law shall pass current in New Jersey for sixteen months, and shall be a legal tender for all debts, public and private, payable in money." The bill is signed by Governor Wood, and is numbered 100.

Two Killed by Trains.
Watchman Swenke and an Unknown Man Found Dead by the Tracks.
Early today the body of a man was found lying near the Hudson River Railroad tracks, at the foot of West One Hundredth street. He had been struck by a passing train. The body was identified as that of Albert Swenke, fifty-seven years old, a watchman employed by the Hudson River Railroad. His home was at 43 West Ninety-ninth street.

WRECKED BY SPREADING RAILS.
Many Passengers Injured on a Texas Railroad.
HEARNE, Tex., Nov. 2.—The east-bound passenger train on the International and Great Northern Railway, due at Hearne at 1:35 P. M., was wrecked yesterday near the junction of the two lines. The train was wrecked because of the track spreading.

FITZSIMMONS ORDERED TO ANTE.
The Prize-Fighter Says He Can't Pay His Wife's Divorce Expenses.
"Bob" Fitzsimmons, the pugilist, has been knocked out in his first legal bout. Judge Gibbons, of the Superior Court, has ordered him to ante up for his wife's divorce expenses.

Answers to Questions.
F. W. R.—Lapse: T. Goodwin is chairman of the Twenty-third Street Branch Y. M. C. A. Yankers—If you don't want to vote for a candidate, don't vote at all. It is better to abstain than to vote for a candidate who is not your own.

World's Fair Exhibit for London.
LONDON, Nov. 2.—The Court of Honor at the World's Fair, which is to be held in London, has decided to accept the offer of the "American" Exhibition Association to exhibit the "American" Exhibition at the Crystal Palace.

Will Build a Parallel Pipe Line.
HAWKES, Md., Nov. 2.—The National Transit Company has decided to build a parallel pipe line to run from the line built along the Main line from Baltimore to New York.

Touching the Kitchen Bitten.
When cooking is done by electricity, as Herr Shoen, of Austria, says, will be the case in a few years, the kitchen will have taken its place along with other old-fashioned affairs. Does madam want a cup of tea? She attaches a tiny rope of cotton to a vessel of water, and in three minutes the water is boiling.

A Chain of Sundays.
It is a strange fact, but one said to be true, that every one of the week days is, for some nation, a Sunday, or day of rest.

Chops a la Princess.
Broil and cool. Dip in mushroom sauce. Set on ice till cold. Dip in cream and crumbs, and fry in deep lard. Serve with white sauce.

A Bride's Travelling Costume.
A pretty costume worn by an English bride on her wedding tour is shown in this sketch. It consisted of cream serge, with gullure lace and insertion with white lace.

Over pale blue silk; cream felt hat, trimmed with blue velvet to match the dress, and dark bolero cloak with velvet cape, trimmed with bear fur and lined with yellow shot silk.

Doatsheless.
The open looklessness, now so popular, are the prettiest when the edge of the eyelids are faced with pink velvet. This method of displaying one's books is certainly more sensible than shutting them up behind glass doors. But it entails a watchful eye for the dust, which accumulates with dreadful rapidity upon the tops of the books.

Fastened diagonally across the chest with a single button of bronze. The lower vest, also of cream color, is buttoned down the front with a row of bronze buttons. The "Mme. Tallien" reverses are of the same cream cloth. The vertical puffed sleeves have a deep cuff of cream cloth. The material of the sleeves, coat and plastron is black satin lisse. The skirt is of dark petunia colored lisse. The hat of velvet, colored to match the skirt, is trimmed with choux and plumes of black.

Minced Chicken.
Take the breast of cold chicken and mince it finely. Add half a teaspoonful of fine flour, together with five or six teaspoonfuls of broth. Season with a pinch of salt. If broth is not at hand substitute milk.

Columbian Quadrille.
In paying tribute to the Columbian year the American Association of Lancing Masters revised the Centennial Quadrille. There are four figures, each danced four times, with eight couples, in the following order:

Baked Hash.
One pint of chopped cooked meat, one pint of chopped raw potatoes, one-half pint of gravy or water, one tablespoonful of butter, melted, salt and pepper to taste. Mix all the ingredients together, turn into a mould and bake in a moderate oven one hour.

An Evening Clock.
A charming evening clock is made of dull red serge, lined throughout with silk of the same shade. It is made with a yoke and a high flaring collar, stiffly wired and edged with the black feather trimming so universally becoming. It may be tied at the throat with black ribbon or fastened with clasps. Those which imitate Byzantine jewelry are especially effective against the dull red background.

Maynard Pie.
Line buttered dish with mashed potatoes; fill with parboiled sliced mutton; add pepper, salt and glistful of catsup and stock to moisten meat well; cover with mashed potato and bake; as it browns rub with butter.

A Delightful Cape.
This cape is specially appropriate to the present season of the year, and made of very fine Venetian cloth, in a beautiful shade of golden tan. The double capes are edged with fur, while round the neck there is a handsome fur trimming, terminating in front in two long curls which hang away from the cape with a hair-like effect.

Chops a la Princess.
